

1 Match the two parts of the sentences.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| 1 If your best friend lied to you, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 If you are worried about something, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 If you had failed your exams, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 If you have any problems with your computer, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 If you add some orange juice before you cook it, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6 If I wasn't so tired, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7 If he had told the truth, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8 If we see Alex, | <input type="checkbox"/> |
-
- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| a I'd come with you to the shops. | e who do you talk to? |
| b what would you have done? | f what would you do? |
| c he wouldn't have got into trouble. | g we'll invite him to the party tonight. |
| d I'll help you. | h the cake will taste much better. |

8

2 Circle the correct words.

- 1 What would you say / would you have said if you met your favourite actor?
- 2 If you had booked / would book a table, we wouldn't have waited so long for one.
- 3 How will we get home if we messed / miss the bus?
- 4 If a scorpion stings you, it will have hurt / hurts a lot.
- 5 If you got the chance to travel anywhere in the world, where will / would you go?

- 6 I will come / would have come to your party if I hadn't been sick in bed.
- 7 If we will talk / talk during the test, the teacher will tell us to be quiet.

7

3 Complete the conditional sentences.

- 1 If you (borrow) those CDs, when will you give them back to me?
- 2 You (not get) into trouble if you had listened to what I told you.
- 3 These little fish are delicious if you (put) some lemon on them.
- 4 Dad, if you gave me a lift to the station, I (wash) your car for a month.
- 5 If you (put) some sun cream on, you wouldn't have got burnt.
- 6 This bread is amazing if you eat it while it (be) still hot.
- 7 If you go to Spain, which places (you visit)?
- 8 I would do more work if I (have) a new computer.

8