A Special Present

I've got a lot of relatives, but my Aunt Jane is my favourite. She's not very old, she isn't married and we have a lot of fun together. She works in a department store in another town. Yesterday it was her birthday and I wanted to buy her a really nice present, so on Saturday I decided to go shopping.

In the centre of our town there is a jeweller's. It's in a street full of shops, opposite an Italian café that I like a lot and in between a bookshop and a newsagent's. Also, just down the road there's a pet shop that sells fun things.

My sister came with me and we went into the jeweller's. The shop assistant there showed us some watches, necklaces and bracelets. The watches were nice, but they were very expensive. Then I saw a little box that had a bracelet and necklace. I knew Aunt Jane would love it. I looked at how much it cost, but it wasn't cheap. I didn't have enough money, but I wanted to buy it. I wasn't very happy. My sister looked, too. Then she smiled and said, 'Let's get the present from both of us. We can pay for it together and then it won't be so expensive.' Now I was very happy and I knew that Aunt Jane would be, too.

1 Read the text and write True (T) or False (F).

- 1 The writer has got a small family. F
- 2 Aunt Jane hasn't got a job. F
- 3 There are many shops in the town. T

Which is your Favourite Time of Year?

One of the months of the year that I really like is May. I like it because it's not very hot, but there are a lot of really sunny days. Sometimes it's warm enough to go swimming and you can sit in the sun without needing a lot of sun cream. It rains quite a lot, too, but I don't mind because we need the rain. In the summer it doesn't rain very often here so it's good to have as much rain now as possible.

When I was younger, May was very exciting for me because I knew that the summer was coming and that soon it would be holiday time! The worst thing about May is that we have exams at school and we have to study every day and every evening at home. Our teachers give us a lot of homework, more than we have time for. The very best month now of course, is June, when all the exams are over and we don't have school. I really love it then! That's my favourite month of the year.

My worst month is January because all the winter holidays are over and it's usually cold and rainy. A lot of people are bad-tempered and we don't have much fun. One good thing that we have to look forward to is Apokries in February and March, when we have lots of fancy dress parties. I usually make my costume myself, with a little help from my mum. Every year I make something different and I know this year's is going to be very special!

1 Read the text and write True (T) or False (F).

- 1 It rains every day in May. F
- 2 The teachers give them too much homework in May. T
- 3 The writer doesn't like January because she's always got a cold then. F
- 4 The writer doesn't have any help with her costumes. F

5 The writer thinks that her costume this year will be very good. T

A Mystery

Yesterday was my birthday and it was a lovely day, warm and sunny with no wind, and I didn't have any homework to do. I was having a special dinner with my family in the evening, but I wanted to do something nice with my friends before then.

I called my friend Lucy, but she was busy shopping with her mum. I called another friend, Tom, but he was studying. I called a third friend, Alex, but she was at her aunt's village. I didn't have anyone to play with and I was really bored and a bit sad to be by myself on my birthday. It was a bit odd that everyone was busy. I switched on the television, but I don't like watching it during the day and anyway there was nothing interesting on. Dad was out doing something to the car and Mum was talking on the phone.

Finally, when Mum saw that I had nothing to do she said that Harry, our dog, needed a walk and that I should take him to the beach. Harry loves the beach and he often goes in the sea. It seemed like a good idea, so I got Harry and off we went to the beach.

As I was walking on the beach, I thought I saw Lucy far away, but Lucy was shopping. Then I saw someone who looked like Alex, but Alex was at her aunt's. And then I saw Tom and Dad making a fire on the beach. Before I had time to try to find answers to the mystery, I saw Mum and all my relatives. They all turned and looked at me.

'Happy Birthday, Karen. Surprise!' They all shouted and I finally understood.

Seal Island

My grandmother lives in a village called Blakeney, which is by the sea. The whole area is a protected nature reserve for birds and other animals. Not far from the village is an island where only seals live. It's very well known and a lot of tourists come from all over the country to see the seals and of course all the birds. If you want to see the seals, you can go on a special boat trip around the island. You can't get off the boat, but you can get quite near the seals. They like all the people and they often give them a show, swimming and playing games. They're not shy at all and they are very beautiful.

There aren't any boat trips when the seals have given birth because the baby seals get frightened and the parents don't like having visitors. The trips stop in the winter, too, when the weather is bad. Sometimes, even in the summer, it's very windy and the waves are too big for the boats to go out.

A few years ago, a lot of the seals became ill and many of them died. It wasn't just in Blakeney that this happened. Seals all around the country were sick, too, and vets were very worried because they didn't know what was wrong with them and if they would get better. Luckily, they did get better and they started having baby seals again. Now there are as many seals as there were before the mystery illness.

1 Read the text and write the answers.

- Where does the writer's grandmother live?
In a village by the sea called Blakeney.
- What is special about the whole area?
It is a protected nature reserve.
- Where do the seals live?
They live on an island (not far from Blakeney).
- How can you see the seals?
You can go on a special boat trip.

- What do the seals do sometimes?
The put on a show for the tourists, swimming and playing (games).
- Do the seals lay eggs?
No, they give birth to baby seals.
- Why do the boat trips stop then?
Because the baby seals are frightened and their parents don't like visitors.
- What happened a few years ago?
A lot of the seals became ill and died.
- Why were the vets so worried?
Because they didn't know what was wrong with the seals or if the seals would get better again.
- How many seals are there now?
There are as many as there were before the illness.

Holiday news

Hi Everyone,

It's me, Lucy, again! I hope that you all enjoy reading my blog every week. This week I'm writing this to you from the beautiful island of Aegina, where I'm visiting a friend who lives here.

For those of you who have never been here, Aegina is close to Athens and the port of Piraeus. You can get here in less than an hour by boat and lots of people come just for the day or for a weekend.

My friend, Amalia, doesn't live in the main town of Aegina, she lives in a small village called Vagia, which has a lot of visitors because it's so lovely. Vagia is close to the town of Souvala, which is the island's second port. In summer, the island is very busy, and there are a lot of great cafés and restaurants everywhere.

There are lots of places to go swimming here and most of the beaches are sandy. The sea is usually warm and there aren't any sharks or other dangerous animals, but sometimes you have to be careful not to stand on a sea urchin. That hurts!

Yesterday we had lunch in the fishing village of Perdika and, of course, we had fresh fish. Opposite Perdika there is a little island called Moni, which is a nature reserve. No people live on the island, but you can see a lot of animals and birds there. Today we are going to the beach at Marathonas, which is half way between the town of Aegina and Perdika. We'll probably have lunch there, too, as there are a lot of restaurants.

I'm really having a great time here and I don't want to go home.

Bye for now!

1 Read the text and write the answers.

1 Where is Lucy writing from?

From the island of Aegina.

2 Where is she staying?

With her friend Amalia in the village of Vagia.

3 How long does it take to get to the island from Piraeus?

Less than an hour.

4 Why are there a lot of tourists in Vagia?

Because it's beautiful.

5 Why must you be careful in the sea?

So that you don't stand on a sea urchin.

6 What kind of place is Perdika?

It's a fishing village.

7 What did the girls have for lunch?

Fresh fish.

8 Who or what lives on the island of Moni?

Animals live there.

9 Where is Marathonas beach?

It's in between Aegina town and Perdika.

10 Why doesn't Lucy want to go home?

Because she's having a great time.

A Great Party

Last weekend I went to a fancy dress party at my best friend's house. Her name is Betty. It was for Halloween on 31st October and everyone had to dress up in a scary costume. Some of my friends buy their costumes, but a lot of us like to make them ourselves. One friend, Peter, came dressed as a skeleton! He was wearing a tight black top and trousers and his mum painted a skeleton on him in white paint. You could see all the bones! It was really good. His mum is a doctor so she knew exactly where all the bones had to be!

I dressed up as a bad witch and I didn't need any help with my costume. I painted my face and hands green and I had a black hat that I made from paper and black cloth. I was wearing a black dress and a big black cape and heavy boots. I think I looked quite frightening!

They switched off all the lights and only had tiny green and red lights inside and it was scary. Betty's mum and her friends made lots of delicious things for us to eat and all the grown ups stayed in the kitchen. We played party games and danced all night. It was tiring, but we had a great time and we all went home feeling very happy.

A Bad Dream

Last night I had a terrible dream. I was with my friends from school and we were at the zoo. It was in the winter and it was very cold and we were all wearing a lot of clothes. Our teachers were with us, but suddenly they all disappeared. We were standing outside the lions cage when one of my friends, Cindy, screamed.

We all looked at her, but she was looking at one of the lions. It was wearing clothes and it had the face of a person. Not just any person but our teacher, Mr Rankin. He was inside the lions' cage, but he wasn't pretending to be a lion, he was a lion.

Then Mandy shouted. 'Hey, kids, look over here!' She was standing by the place the elephants were. 'Look, it's Miss Wilson!' And it was her. It looked like an elephant, but it was Miss Wilson. Then I saw Mr Black, our Maths teacher, in with the pythons. Usually Mr Black is very kind to us, but now he looked really frightening and we were all very worried. The snake came closer and opened its mouth and I thought it was going to attack us. Just then I woke up and remembered that today we had a Maths test!

Something to Look Forward to

A few months ago, I was in hospital because I was in a car crash where I broke a few bones. I had to stay in bed for a long time because I couldn't walk and it hurt a lot! For the first five or six days I wasn't bored because I was really sick, but later it was terrible.

After about ten days, my brother Nick, who is working in America at the moment, sent me a small parcel. My mum brought it into my room in the hospital and helped me to open it. I couldn't open it myself because one of my arms was broken. It was a DVD of a big colour atlas of the world and tourist information about hundreds of countries. There was a short letter as well. The letter said,

To my dear little brother, Jamie

I hope you're feeling better. I know what it's like to be sick and I'm really sorry this happened to you. I'm sorry, too, that I can't come and visit you but here is something that I hope might make you feel a bit happier.

I have just won some money, a lot of money, and when you are completely better, I want us to go on a trip around the world together, just the two of us! I have a small problem, but you can help. I am too busy to plan the trip now because I have a lot of work, but one thing that you have at the moment is time. So, please, I want you to plan the most amazing holiday for us! You can choose which countries we'll go to and how long we're going to stay in each one. Do you think you can do that?

All my love,
Your brother Nick

Summer in the City

This summer I am going to stay in my home town. My father has just got a new job and he doesn't want us to go away on holiday. We are lucky because we live near the sea and there are some wonderful beaches not far from our house. You can't walk there, but you can catch the tram or the bus.

My brother and I have always wanted to learn different water sports so this year my father decided that we could join a club where they teach them. It was a bit expensive, but because we aren't going away, the cost of the club isn't going to be a problem.

We won't spend every day doing water sports because once a week we are going to go to a different museum in the city. We have been to some of them on school trips, but there are many more that we haven't visited and some that we'd like to go to again. Some of my friends think it's boring, but I like learning about the history of our country and of the world.

In the evenings we can go to the open-air cinema in the park. The weather is usually nice and warm and it doesn't rain very often. We've got a big garden and sometimes in the summer we play 'camping' there. We put up a tent, bring sleeping bags and a picnic and sleep outside. Our dog comes with us so we aren't frightened. He's big and looks dangerous, but he is really very gentle and sweet. Sometimes our friends come over and camp with us.

I'm really looking forward to doing all these things in our city. I'm sure we'll have a lot of fun.

1 Read the text and write the answers.

1 Why aren't the children going away this summer?

Because their father has started a new job and doesn't want to go away.

2 Why does the writer think they are lucky?

3 How can they get to the beach?

They can take the tram or the bus.

4 What has their father decided?

That they can join a water sports club.

5 What are they going to do for one day every week?

They are going to visit a museum.

6 Who thinks museum trips are boring?

Some of their friends.

7 What is special about the cinema?

It is an open-air cinema.

8 What do the children do in the garden?

They play camping.

9 Who protects them?

Their dog.

10 How does the writer feel about staying in the city for the summer?

He is looking forward to it.

An Exciting Move

This summer, my family is moving to another city a long way from where we live now because my mother has got a new job there. She's an engineer and they need her to work on a fantastic new bridge they are building. This job will take more than two years and my mum didn't want to live away from my brother and I and, of course, from my dad for all that time. My dad hasn't got a job at the moment, but he will probably find one in the new city really quickly. He's a chef, and a good one, and I'm sure that one of the restaurants will want him to cook for them. He's really good at making French and Italian food.

At the moment, we are living in a flat, but we are going to move to a big house with a garden. I will finally have my own room! I love my brother, but sometimes I just want to be by myself. Mum says that we can get a dog, too. I've always wanted to get one and it's like a dream come true!

It's all very exciting but I'm a bit scared, too. We have to go to a new school where we don't know anyone and I know I'll really miss my friends here. I'll invite them to come here in the holidays. Dad said we should join an after-school club where lots of kids go because it's a good way to meet new people. Also, if you have a lovely dog, people always talk to you when you take it for walks in the park or on the beach.

1 Read the text and write the answers.

1 What is happening to the writer's family this summer?

They are moving to a new city.

2 Why are they going there?

6 What has the writer wanted to do all her life?
Get a dog.

7 Why is the writer a bit frightened?

Because she has to go to a new school

8 What advice did the children's father give them?

They should join an after-school club.

9 Why should the children do this?

To make new friends.

10 What happens to you if you have a dog?

People talk to you when you take it for walks.

My New Life

Last summer, my family moved to a new town on the other side of the country. My father is a doctor and he had to go and work in a new hospital there. Of course, he didn't want to go by himself so he and my mum decided that the whole family should go with him. My mum is a teacher so it was easy for her to find work. Luckily, she doesn't teach at the school I go to!

We used to live in a small house with a garden, but now we live in a really big flat. We don't have a garden, of course, because we live on the tenth floor but we have a fantastic balcony, which has a lot of plants. It's funny because our balcony is bigger than the garden we had before!

Before we moved, I was very worried about going to a new school. I was scared that I would be lonely and that I wouldn't have any friends. Everything is alright now and I have met some great kids. I still miss my old friends but we write emails and I like reading their blogs.

I have joined an after-school theatre club. I like acting, singing and dancing and this was a great idea. Most of my new friends also go to the club and we have a lot of fun doing plays and musicals. I can say that I'm very happy with my new life.
