

MOST COMMON IRREGULAR VERBS

PART 3

NAME 3...

*Answer the questions
by naming 3 things.*

things you bought last week.

books you read last year.

items of clothing you wore yesterday.

things you lost in your life.

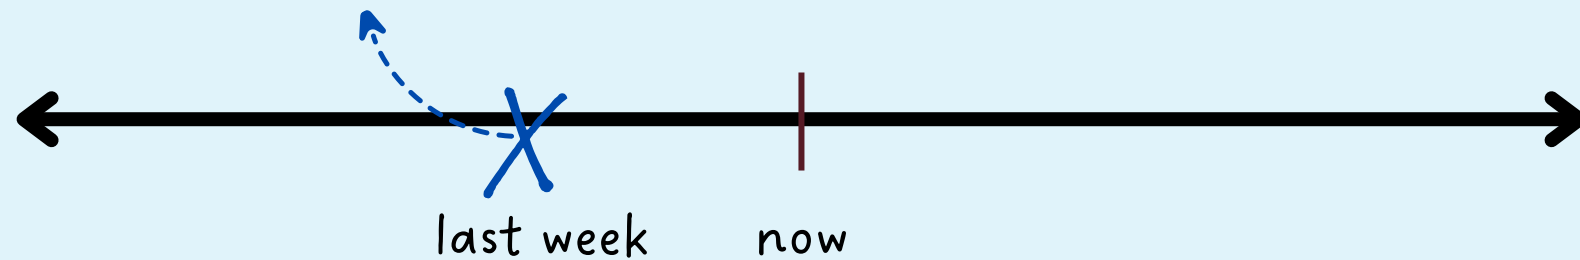

dishes you ate yesterday.

prizes or awards you won in your life.

PAST SIMPLE

The past simple tense is used to describe completed actions or events that happened at a specific time in the past.

They went to the cinema last week.

- I played soccer with my friends yesterday.
- She watched a movie at home last night.

Regular verbs: To form the past simple tense for regular verbs, add -ed to the base form of the verb.

- I studied English last night.
- She visited her family a year ago.

Time expressions: Use time expressions like yesterday/ last/ ago to indicate when the past action or event occurred.

- I saw my friend at the park yesterday.
- She ate a sandwich for lunch.

Irregular verbs: Some verbs have irregular past tense forms that don't follow the -ed rule. They must be memorized.

- I didn't play soccer with my friends yesterday.
- She didn't watch a movie at home last night.

Negative sentences: Use the auxiliary verb did not/ didn't + the base form of the verb.

- Did you play soccer with your friends yesterday?
- Did she watch a movie at home last night?

Questions: To form a yes/no question in the past simple tense, use the auxiliary verb did + the subject + the base form of the verb.

She was very happy last week. She wasn't very happy last week. Was she very happy last week?

For sentences without action verbs, just use was/were for negative sentences and questions.

Discuss their meaning.
