2. Match the words (a-f) from Exercise 1 with the pictures on the right.

WHICH BAG IS THIS?

1. Read the descriptions of the things in 2 different bags. Then, match them with the correct pictures.

A. In this bag, there is a phone in a beautiful case and a tablet. This person might work online. There are also black glasses. It is a woman's bag, as there is lipstick and a stylish watch. Additionally, there is a grey wallet. There isn't a camera in this bag.

B. In this bag, there aren't many items. There is a watch. This person might be travelling at the moment, as there is a passport and a camera in the bag. There are also two notebooks and a pencil. There aren't any snacks in this bag.

2. Look at the sentences from Ex.1 and complete the rules below. Underline the correct variant.

- We use there is for singular/plural nouns and there are for singular/plural nouns.

In this bag, there is a phone in a beautiful case and a tablet. There are also two notebooks and a pencil.

- For negatives, we use there isn't/there aren't for singular and there isn't/there aren't for plural nouns.

There isn't a camera in this bag. There aren't any snacks in this bag.

- For questions, we say Is there for singular nouns and uncountable nouns and Are there for plural nouns.

Is there a tablet in the second bag? Are there any snacks?

WHAT'S IN THEIR BAGS?

The screenshot shows an interactive activity on a tablet. At the top left is the 'ENG HUB' logo. The title 'What's in Their Bags?' is centered at the top. Below the title is a small instruction: 'Read each person's profile and, using 'there is' or 'there are', describe what items you think belong in their bag, then drag those items from the list into the rectangle next to their name.' To the right of the title is a note: 'There is no correct answer. Just share your thoughts.'

On the left, there is a profile for Sarah: 'Sarah is a fitness instructor who teaches yoga and pilates. She goes to work by bike and likes to have quick, healthy snacks. She often goes for a run in the park after her classes.' Below her profile is a large grey rectangle for item selection. On the right, there is a profile for Tom: 'Tom is a university student who loves to stay organized. He has classes all day and studies at the library in between. He enjoys reading and jotting down ideas for his essays.' Below his profile is another large grey rectangle.

In the center, there is a collection of 30 colorful icons representing various items: a smartphone, a water bottle, a passport, a comb, a perfume bottle, a toothbrush, a toothpaste tube, a wallet, a pair of sunglasses, a map, a pencil case, a highlighter, an umbrella, keys, a paperclip, a water bottle, a pair of glasses, a pair of sunglasses, a camera, a hand sanitizer bottle, a wallet, a pair of headphones, a notebook, a pair of shoes, a laptop, a stack of books, a folder, a smartphone, a pen, a water bottle, and a credit card.

At the bottom left of the tablet screen is the 'genially Education' logo. At the bottom right is a share icon.

Now let's practice!

Follow the link and read each person's profile. Using 'there is' or 'there are', describe what items you think belong in their bag, then drag those items from the list into the rectangle next to their picture.
