TABOO GAME

Read the rules and play in teams or player VS player.

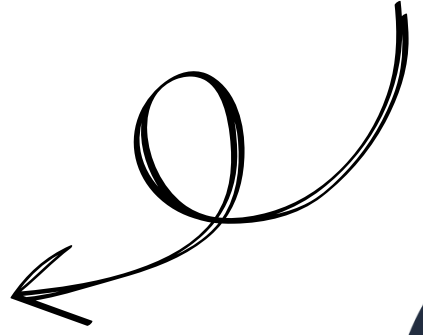

You will see a word at the top of the card. Your task is to explain it to your team or opponent as quickly as possible without saying the word itself or those listed below it. You can use a stopwatch to time the players. The player with the least amount of time wins! Cards can be sent privately in the chat before the game, or you can just ask the students to turn away from their screens and allow one player to see and explain the card.

ROLE-PLAY

Be sure to use a range of phrases from the previous slides.

Pair up with a partner or form small groups of 2-3 students.

Choose one of the scenarios provided below or create your own scenario at the cinema.

Movie Night

You and your friend are planning a movie night out at the cinema. Your friend is really excited about the idea, but you need to decide on the movie, showtimes, and other details. The two of you will engage in a role-play conversation to plan the perfect movie night together.

Time for Snacks

You have decided to go to the cinema with your friends. Your movie starts in 20 minutes, and you're stuck at the snack counter. Discuss your friends' preferences for snacks, their sizes, and drinks.

Movie Choice

You arrive at the cinema but are struggling to decide on a movie to watch. Engage in a conversation with a cinema staff member about the movies, formats, and runtimes. Make a decision about which movie you would like to watch and proceed to buy a ticket.

Where's my seat?

You have come to the cinema, bought a ticket, and started to look for your row and seat. There are a lot of people, so you decide to ask a cinema staff member to help you.
