THE PURRFECT CAFE

*Let's discuss!
Answer the questions below.*

What is the best part about the Cat Cafe idea?

Would you like to work in such a cafe? Why? Why not?

Do you like hanging out with your friends in cafes or do you prefer some other places?

Are there any places near your home where you can pick up a coffee or tea? Tell about them.

THE WORLD'S MOST UNUSUAL RESTAURANTS

Read the article below. Pay attention to the words and phrases in blue. After reading, you will also complete a task.

THE CAT CAFÉ, TOKYO, JAPAN

In this café the milk isn't just for the coffee, the cats might get some too. As you can guess from the name, this little café is filled with cats of all shapes and sizes that walk around, as you sit and sip your coffee or tea. The Cat Cafe does not serve food but offers to its guests complimentary beverages. What is special here is not the meal but the time spent with the cats. This idea is great for crowded cities, where space is limited and most apartment buildings have a strict no-pets policy. You can find similar cafes in cities like Paris and Seoul. People come in to relax, many regularly, 'cause pets are known stress relievers'. Most stay for over an hour, others for the whole day. At about $9.00 an hour, it's a pricy cup of coffee but an inexpensive therapy session.

THE NOTE COFFEE IN HANOI, VIETNAM

There are hundreds of thousands of notes left by visitors from all over the world. The entire coffee shop, over 4 floors, is covered with small cute sticky notes. You could easily spend hours walking around the cafe and reading the wise words of travellers. The waiters here are very friendly. As you would expect in any coffee shop, the menu offers a lot of drinks. Hanoi's famous egg coffee, coconut coffee, different fruity teas, and smoothies are just to name a few. Downstairs at the checkout area, there is also an option to buy some cakes and small snacks. This place is quite inexpensive!

FOREVER ROSE CAFÉ, ABU DHABI, UAE

A 2D-designed café just opened in Abu Dhabi, and it's possibly the most Instagrammable place in the UAE. The food and beverages are different in colour, as well as the people. You can enjoy some coffee, tea and sweets here, in addition to different extravagant dishes. According to the reviews, prices here are affordable. The service is great, the waiters will even take some nice photos of you if you want.
