LET'S DISCUSS!

Read the comments. Discuss them with your partner/group/teacher. Do you agree or disagree? Can you relate to them? What advice would you give?

The problem for me is that most of the things I do are not related to going outside. I like gaming, graphic designing, learning new things and reading books.

This was funny lol. But, I really can't do the second step. I haven't done that my entire life. I mean, going to a place regularly where you can meet people and then try small talk with them.

I'm 12 and its not easy to make friends in middle school. I find it really hard to come out of my comfort zone and I feel like I just can't do it 😞

Great video! I think the idea of joining clubs or groups to meet people is a good one. I've had success with that in the past. I also think it's important to be yourself and not try too hard. Genuine connections are the best.
