

2

The picnic

Name: Class:

1 Look and read. Write the words.

Mark /4

water

soup

a roll

cheese

salad

- 1 This is a type of bread. You can have ham in it.
a roll
- 2 It is usually yellow or white. You can have it in your sandwiches.

- 3 You wash your hands with it. You can also drink it.

- 4 You eat this with a spoon. There are vegetables in it.

- 5 It is usually cold. It can have tomatoes in it.

2

The picnic

Name: Class:

2 Circle the correct word.

Mark / 6

- 1 No, there isn't some / any lemonade, but we have water!
- 2 Yes! There is some / any milk in the fridge.
- 3 Is there some / any chocolate in your lunch box?
- 4 There aren't some / any sausages for the picnic!
- 5 There are some / any oranges on the table – they're delicious!
- 6 Would you like some / any tea?
- 7 Are there some / any tomatoes in the salad?

3 Complete the dialogues.

There is an extra word in the box.

Mark / 5

shall some idea about OK make go

A: Maggie, ¹ shall I ² _____ chicken soup for lunch?

B: No, I really don't like chicken. How ³ _____ vegetable soup?

A: ⁴ _____ !

A: John, let's have a picnic today!

B: No, I don't want a picnic. Shall we ⁵ _____ to the cinema?

A: Good ⁶ _____ !

Total unit mark / 15