Riddles/Clue Cards

I'm oh so round, I have no legs

I'm super tasty in scrambled eggs

Behind the sofa, you will find A tasty morsel for Easter time.

A tasty breakfast, or a chocolate dream

I taste great with a little cream

But you won't find me unless you look

Inside the pages of your favourite book.

I'm just as hip as I am hop When Easter arrives, I work around the clock

I'm in the bedroom searching high and low

I've stashed my treats under your pillow.

My petals are yellow, I shine like the sun

When Easter is near, I pop up for fun

My face is shining by the stairs

My lucky treats may come in pairs.

Sometimes I'm empty and sometimes I'm full

It could be eggs, or it could be wool

Look out of the window left and right

There are treats to find this Easter night.

My wool is soft, I have four feet When Spring has sprung, it feels so sweet

I am hidden where it is cold

But there are tasty treats inside, so I'm told.

I'm yellow and small, I say tweet, tweet

I wear no shoes upon my feet

I'm not the elf upon the shelf

If you look upon me, you'll see yourself.

I could be yellow, I could be brown

Try looking up, or looking down

I'm much too round to be a square

You'll find me sitting on the chair.
